TISSINGTON WELL-DRESSINGS & AFTERNOON TEA AT FAIRWAYS GARDEN CENTRE
NEW FOR 2026 BROCHURE

Nestled in the heart of Derbyshire, Tissington Village is renowned for its picturesque charm and rich traditions. One of the most celebrated events in the village is the annual Well Dressing festival – a unique and captivating tradition that dates back centuries. What is Well Dressing? Well dressing is an ancient custom that involves decorating wells and springs with intricate and beautiful designs made from natural materials such as flowers, petals, leaves, and seeds. This tradition is believed to have originated as a way of giving thanks for clean water. After ample time to meander, we head to Fairways Garden Centre for 2pm and your delicious Afternoon Tea!

KING'S LYNN

The Hanseatic town of King's Lynn was one of England's most important ports from as early as the 12th century and this maritime past is still very much in evidence today. Fine old merchants' houses stretch down to the river between cobbled lanes, and the elegant Custom House overlooks the harbour. The town's heritage is reflected in an amazing array of historic buildings and at two magnificent market places:

Saturday Market Place, where St Margaret's Church, designated as a Minster Church in 2011 by the Bishop of Norwich, is surrounded by splendid buildings and Tuesday Market Place, quite possibly one of England's grandest squares. It's also market day today, so you're sure to find a bargain or 2!!
